

News Of Servicemen

Jack M. Simerly, hospital corpsman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis M. Hurn of 2918 Opac St., Torrance was graduated, Aug. 1, from Field Medical Service School at Camp Pendleton.

The four - week basic course for Navy hospital corpsmen covers special problems encountered in treating wounds and sickness under combat conditions. Two weeks of the course consist of individual combat training.

Graduates of the school join units of the Fleet Marine Force for duty.

Airman Third Class Frederick D. Hergenrother of Torrance, is being reassigned to Norton AFB, Calif., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for electrical power production specialists at Sheppard AFB, Texas.

Airman Hergenrother, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean D. Hergenrother of 18737 S. Wilton Pl., Torrance, learned to operate and repair diesel engine generators used to furnish electric power to Air Force installations.

A graduate of North High School, the airman attended El Camino College. He entered the service in January 1962.

Two soldiers from Torrance, Privates First Class Douglas C. Anderson and Raymond F. Andicochea, participated with more than 70,000 Army and Air Force personnel in Exercise Swift Strike II, a two-week U.S. Strike Command maneuver in North and South Carolina which ended Aug. 17.

The Strike Command units select Army and Air Force units as an air-ground combat team that can move swiftly into action any place in the world.

Anderson and Andicochea and machinegunners in Company D of the 101st Airborne Division's 502d Infantry, regularly stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky.

Anderson, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed D. Anderson, 2111 Gramercy Ave., entered the Army in September 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Ord. He is a former student of South High School.

Andicochea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Romon Andicochea, 4231 W. 177th St., entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Ord. The 19-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of North High School and attended El Camino Junior College in Redondo.

Army Specialist Four Bobby E. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. White, 21814 Ladeene St., Torrance, participated with more than 70,000 Army and Air Force personnel in Exercise Swift Strike II, a two-week U.S. Strike Command maneuver in North and South Carolina that ended Aug. 17.

The Strike Command units select Army and Air Force units as an air-ground combat team that can move swiftly into action any place in the world.

Specialist White is a mechanic in the 16th Artillery's Service Battery, regularly stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C.

He entered the Army in September 1960 and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

The 19-year-old soldier attended South High School.

KEEPERS' TASKS

Mothers of babies will appreciate the task of the keepers of the Baby Zoo at Jungland in Thousand Oaks. Here a formula for an average feeding contains two cases of canned milk, 30 pounds of molasses, cod liver oil, vitamins, minerals, bone meal and to keep the coats nice and shiny, eggs.

NONSWIMMERS

Out of 6,500 persons drowned in the United States during a 12-month period, two out of three were nonswimming deaths. These nonswimming deaths, the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council reports, involved boating and fishing accidents, falls from docks, bridges and shoreline embankments.

Division of Kiwanis Elects 1963 Lieutenant Governor

Kiwanis leadership in 1963 for 22 clubs will be given by Paul H. Smith, Gardena.

Smith was elected Lt. Gov. of Division 19, California-Hawaii-Nevada District of Kiwanis by a caucus of presidents and immediate past presidents for all Kiwanis Clubs in this area.

Smith holds 13 years of perfect attendance in the Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club. He served as its president in 1956. The new Lt. Gov. lived in Gardena for 14 years.

He is the owner of the Alondra Nursing Home, Rosecrans Blvd.

NOMINATION

Smith's nomination for office was made by Joe Jeffers, past president of the El Camino Kiwanis Club.

Former lieutenant governors from the Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club include

Tom Mills, 1959, and Homer Bale, 1951.

Smith will provide leadership in 1963 for Kiwanis ideals of service to youth and to community. In addition, Smith has been a member of the Gardena Chamber of Commerce board of directors, and has served for 12 years on the board of directors of the Gardena YMCA.

CLOSE SPACING

To get close, even spacing of planks when building a wood deck drop a large spike between the planks as they are pushed together and nailed in place. Just lift the spikes out as you progress.
